SIERRA MADRE, COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

VOLUME 40—NO. 19

Wistaria Fete to be Held Again This Year

Sierra Madre residents will be pleased to learn that the famous Wistaria Fete will be held again this year. Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Thayer, owners of the property, announce that the Sierra Madre Women's club will again have charge of the ticket sale and the Starcrest Perfume Co. of Pasadena will have the booth. They announce the creation of the Wistaria Perfume, especially for the fete.

It is probable that the opening date will be about the last week in March, unless the present warm weather prevails which would bring the Vine to its prime at an earlier date.

The Wistaria Fete has become a tradition and this probably more than any other one thing has publicized Sierra Madre and the thousands of visitors have gone away charmed with this beautiful city and determined to some day make their home here.

Walter Shanks, 231 W. Grand View, will again have charge of the publicity.

Chamber Commerce Directors' Meeting

The Chamber of Commerce directors received committee reports and planned work of the organization at their meeting Monday evening.

Walter D. Thurber, chairman of the Community Welfare Committee, reported on the progress of that section and stated that Thursday evening of this week a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held at the City Hall with representatives of all Sierra Madre organizations, to acquaint them of the aims, purposes and ambitions of the Chamber of Commerce and to solicit their cooperation.

Russell Lovejoy, chairman of the Finance and Membership committees, stressed the necessity of getting out and acquainting the people of the objectives of the Chamber in order to interest them in memberships.

Deadline Chatter

By JERRY STEWART
(In The Pasadena Independent)

WE GOT OUR MAN
A guy who said he was a Northwest Mounted Policeman was responsible for one of our weirdest newspaper experiences. We were working for the weekly paper in Sierra Madre, and Alfred James Dewey, the well-known artist, dropped in one day with the news that one of his daughters had met a Northwest "mountie" while she was returning from the East and that she had invited the fellow to be their house guest for a few days. (That's the way the Deweys are: if they meet somebody they like, they promptly take them into the family fold.) The mountie was a very personable chap, according to Dewey, and he thought maybe the editor would like a little story about him. "Run up and see the guy," the editor told us. "His experiences might make an interesting yarn."

We didn't get around to it for a couple of days, and when we phoned the house to arrange to see the fellow, we learned he'd gone to Los Angeles for the day. It was press day and we had to leave the story so, nothing daunted, we sat down and wrote a mythical interview. (Yeah, we know; you can't believe everything you read in the papers.)

Well, our story appeared in the paper, under a two-column "head" on page 1. Knowing Dewey's sense of humor, we didn't think he'd mind, but just to make sure our editor wouldn't get wind of the situation, we hustled up to Dewey's canyon retreat and gave him the lowdown. Dewey got a huge kick out of it and later he told us that the mountie did, too.

A few weeks later the mountie packed up and departed for parts unknown. Time went by, and then one day we heard our editor let out a whoop and burst into a room of guffaws. We legged it into his office to find out what was cooking. "You remember that mountie who was visiting the Deweys?" he asked us. "Yeah," we replied, a little uneasily. "Well," he continued, "the sheriff's are looking for him. Seems the guy is a phoney—he isn't any more of a mountie than you are—and now the Law wants him for passing rubber checks."

Every now and then we get out a clipping of our "interview" and re-read it. It was a bing-up story, if we do say so. We particularly like the episode where we had the guy tracking a notorious criminal through the wilds of central Mexico and finally raining him to earth in the little town of Acapulco (we found the name on the map.) We imagine the "mountie" liked that episode, too.

LaMontagne-Penberthy Church Wedding Date is Set for February 17th

Invitations will soon be received for the LaMontagne-Penberthy wedding when Joan Penberthy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Penberthy, 1061 Fallen Leaf Rd., and Lt. John DeGratou LaMontagne will speak

GRADUATED FROM P. J. C. IN SUNDAY EXERCISES

Nine young people from Sierra Madre were among the graduates at Pasadena Junior College exercises held Sunday afternoon; lower division: Rita Fay Beloh-work, Charles Dirk Cable, Linda Ann Irish, Flora Nadine Suld, Jerome J. Thill, Doris Elizabeth Jacobsen and Charles M. Root. Upper division: Jean Alice Brooks, Robert Earl Thomas.

Fourth Grade Now Has Own New Teacher

Miss Mary Elizabeth Allen of Palm Springs is the new teacher in the Sierra Madre schools. Miss Allen, a graduate of Redlands University, is an experienced teacher and started her new work, which is the 4th grade, Monday. On account of the crowded condition of the 4th and 5th grades the group has been divided and Miss Wones will have the third grade. Miss Lowe is established in her work as 6th grade teacher and librarian in Miss Tetreau's place, who resigned.

There has been considerable absence among the faculty the past week. Mrs. Lumsden has been substituting for Miss Newman, Mrs. Latsen in Miss Fessler's absence, Mrs. Nollac for Mrs. Weihs, Mrs. Shook has also been among the absent.

The number of pupils is remaining quite constant, around 580.

Donald Thayer has Affiliated with the DeLuxe Travel Tours

Donald Thayer, internationally renowned concert artist, world traveler and long time resident of Sierra Madre, has recently announced his affiliation with DeLuxe Travel Tours as personal conductor of tours. Main office of the firm is at 940 East Colorado St., Pasadena, while the Sierra Madre branch is at 13 Kersing Court.

Now retired from the concert stage, Mr. Thayer declared that he had chosen this way to continue his absorbing interest in the ways and customs of people all over the world. He is particularly interested in developing itineraries that will take his group off the beaten tourist path into the byways where the real spirit of the country may be felt. In February and March, Mr. Thayer will take groups into Mexico and Guatemala, while in April he will personally conduct a tour to Alaska.

For over 30 years, Mr. Thayer indulged his love for travel and his interest in people while singing in concert and with leading symphony orchestras in Europe, Africa, South and Central America, Cuba, Panama and throughout North America. After receiving his start as soloist in the University of Minnesota Glee Club, Mr. Thayer continued his studies in Rome, Paris, London and Berlin. During his travels Mr. Thayer became a fluent linguist, mastering seven languages.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Riley are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Timothy, January 16, at St. Luke hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Riley moved to Sierra Madre about a year ago and reside at 90 S. Michillinda. The new baby has three brothers, Paul and the twins, Jack and Jim.

LAD HELPS TO MOW DOWN POLIO... Here is little Donald Anderson, five, Princeton, Ore., the spirited youngster who is inspiring victory over infantile paralysis as he keynotes the 1946 "March of Dimes" campaign. Donald stands in front of the poster, showing him during and after his battle with the dread disease. He holds a toy gun as if he would like to meet the polio enemy in mortal combat and beat it for all other kids.

Clothing Collection will Close Today; Quota Filled

Much More Help Will be Needed for the Final Sorting Tomorrow

The local Victory Clothing drive will officially close today. According to Chairman Rosalie Goodwin, the quota has been met in Sierra Madre. The quality of the contributions has been exceedingly good. Already 2165 pounds of warm bedding and clothing have been shipped from this city, the shipment last Monday amounting to 1354 pounds.

The public is asked not to leave garments at any of the various depots after today. However, the ladies will be packing at the City Hall Friday (tomorrow) and any contributions will be accepted. It is suggested that people who have clothing and garments that they have been unable to bring to the depot should keep such material for the need will continue. Churches and charitable organizations will continue the collection. In fact, Mr. Kayser made a release as of today saying recent reports of increased hardship and privation of the destitute victims of war-torn Europe and the Far East will make necessary an extension of the Clothing Collection.

Government officials have found whole families clothed with nothing warmer than paper and paper bedding. Millions have died from exposure and millions more will die unless we Americans contribute clothing we no longer need.

Kiwanis members under the direction of Francis Eakman have been responsible for tying the packages and expressing them. Mrs. Jack Mitchell as chairman of the packing committee has received very gracious help from Mrs. Helen Williams, Mrs. Philip Senour, Mrs. Amy Adams and Mrs. Julia Shannon. The busiest afternoon of packing is anticipated for Friday when the school sends down its collection. Many more ladies will be needed to sort garments from 2 to 5. Kindly report at the City Hall, ladies.

Santa Anita Park Buys Lake Arrowhead; Will Make Huge Year-Round Playground

With elaborate plans already developed to expand and improve Lake Arrowhead and its surrounding properties and improvements into the largest and most extensive winter and summer resort in Southern California, Los Angeles Turf Club, Inc., through Executive Vice-President Charles H. Strub, announced that it has exercised the option to purchase all the assets of Lake Arrowhead Corp.

The 800-acre Arrowhead Lake and 3200 acres of mountain land surrounding it are included in the deal, which has been closed. Improvements and facilities are the Lake Water Company, Lake Arrowhead Lodge, The Village Inn, North Shore Tavern, Lake Shore Cottages and Arrowhead Village with its shops, theatre and amusements. While no purchase price has been revealed, it is reported that several million dollars are involved.

The Turf Club expects to take possession of its new properties around February 1 at the conclusion of the escrow. It will be operated with the world-famous winter thoroughbred racing at Santa Anita Park as the Lake Arrowhead Division of Los Angeles Turf Club, Inc. This will be the second project, outside of racing, that has been successfully undertaken by the club. During the war when Santa Anita Park was in the service of the U.S. Government, an industrial division in 100 per cent war production was organized in the purchase of Gladden Products in Glendale. Executive Vice-President Strub reveals that a survey of Lake Arrowhead has been in progress for the past three months and that a plan has been adopted to make the mountain resort more beautiful, attractive and active.

"It will be the objective to have sports and recreations predominate at Lake Arrowhead both winter and summer," he says. "Full advantages of available snow and the mile-high altitude will be taken to promote skiing, dog-sledding, ice-skating and varieties of popular winter sports."

Horseshoe Tournament City Park

How many Ringers can you throw out of 100 shoes? This coming Saturday and Sunday you will have a chance to show your skill. The Sierra Madre Horseshoe Club is sponsoring this Tournament. If you are not so good you will get a handicap of 10 many fingers. But players like Bus Perry, Cullem, Fred Anderson and Tom Durning will shoot from scratch. All other members will get a handicap. $5.00 is first prize, $3.00 second and $2.00 third.

Public Invited to Attend Combined Court of Honor

Event to Usher in National Scout Week February 8 to 14

The Den Mothers of the Cub Packs and the Parent-Teacher Association were present at the Boy Scouts of America District meeting held last week at the home of William A. Kinney, district chairman. The visitors were present to discuss the problems of Cubbing and to make recommendations for the advancement of the Packs.

Assistant Scout Executive "Skipper" Robinson of the Pasadena-San Gabriel Valley Council gave an inspiring talk on Scout-ing and stressed the fact that the returned servicemen are again showing their interest in the youth of America by re-entering the ranks of Scouting as Leaders and Scout Masters.

Mr. Kinney announced that the campaign to secure used Scout uniforms and equipment for the Scouts in formerly occupied countries, such as France, Belgium, Holland and the Philippines, is to commence February 8, and to continue until March 15. Outgrown Scout uniforms belonging to present Scouts, or stored uniforms belonging to former Scouts, equipment such as flashlights, bugles, tents and pack racks, should be delivered to Burt Nolle, 171 N. Adams St., who is the camping and activities director of this district, or to St. Francis of Assisi, the Congregational church, where they will be placed in the hands of the Scout Chairman.

A reminder to the public was given, urging it to attend the combined Court of Honor and Cub Pack meeting at the Congregational church Monday, February 4. A box lunch is to be brought by the parents, with coffee provided at 6:30 p.m.

The program, with Scout and Cub awards, is to be presented at 7:30 a.m.

Attend State Kiwanis at Fresno Sat.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Korsemeier with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green were in Fresno last Saturday where the gentlemen as president and vice-president, respectively, represented Sierra Madre at the California-Nevada District Convention of Kiwanis International. Lt. Gov. Raymond C. Simpson with Mrs. Simpson and daughter Marilyn preceded the group by a day, going up in time for the executive conference which convened Friday.

Lt. Gov. Simpson received an outstanding compliment when the lieutenant governors were introduced by Gov. Pratt. Gov. Pratt said reports turned in showed that the lieutenant governor from Sierra Madre had made twice the contacts with clubs of his division of any lieutenant governor in the California-Nevada District.

Returns to Chosen Field After New York Training

Miss Florence Evans left for New York City last Sunday where she will have four months special training in blood plasma

FLORENCE EVANS in preparation for return to her missionary work in China. Miss Evans has been in the city at the family home since her discharge from the U. S. Army Nursing Corps in Washington.

MRS. HARRIMAN PASSES AWAY AT AGE OF 79 YEARS

Mrs. Maggie Louella Harriman, 43 Windsor Lane, who passed away January 23, was 79 years old. Of her 44 years spent in California 28 was lived in Sierra Madre. Mrs. Harriman in her younger days operated a real estate office and later her work had been in the artistic field.

She is survived by her four daughters, Ethel Hall and Glenna Evans of this city, Eva Lalone of Los Angeles and Dorothy Kroise of Redondo Beach. There is a brother, F. Dewitt Howison of Durango, Colo. Of her five grandchildren one resides in this city, Bill Evans.

Private services were held at the Grant Chapel Thursday afternoon, Rev. Harley Smith officiating. Interment was at Live Oak cemetery.

SIERRA MADRE REPRESENTED IN EXPOSITION AT PASADENA

English Get One Egg a Mo., Says Speaker

A very interesting first-hand story of conditions in England was given yesterday under the auspices of the Woman's society at the Congregational church by Dr. Henry David Gray, pastor of the Oneonta Congregational church of South Pasadena. Dr. Gray recently returned from England where he was one of seven sent over to make a survey of the condition of the churches and the people.

He said that 4000 churches were bombed, 250 of them being Congregational, and many of them being damaged beyond repair. Food is very scarce and he stated that a luncheon like the one served Tuesday could not be purchased in England for any price. People are limited to one egg a month. Clothing and food conditions are critical. The children are better nourished than the grown-ups, he said, because they sacrifice for the little ones. It was a marvelous story of courage in distress.

RETURNS FROM YOKOHAMA FOR ARMY DISCHARGE

Pearl Harbor, T. H.: T. J. W. R. Jones, of 161 East Alhambra, Sierra Madre, Calif. is one of 1490 point Army veterans whom the Navy is returning to the States for discharge aboard the U.S.S. Herald of the Morning, which left Yokohama, Japan, January 22 and is scheduled to arrive in Seattle about January 25.

The U.S.S. Herald of the Morning is one of the U. S. Navy's many attack transports and cargo ships which supplied sea, air and land forces throughout the Pacific as the U. S. offensive moved westward to the shores of Japan before the close of the war.

January Breaks Record For Building Permits

$110,000 Total for the Month Reached

WILLIAM A. KINNEY

Nationally Honored by Boy Scouting

William A. Kinney, district chairman of the Boy Scouts for Sierra Madre, has been awarded the Silver Beaver by the Pasadena-San Gabriel Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America.

This honor, authorized by the National Council, is given in recognition of Mr. Kinney's long and untiring work in the interest of Scouting, and is the highest award that can be bestowed upon a layman for this service.

Residential building permits for January broke all local records with a total of $110,681. A NEWS representative looked over the records from 1925 to date and this was the largest month in all that period by far, except the month that the schoolhouse was built, which boosted the public buildings section.

For comparison, residential permits in January, 1933, amounted to $1100. In January, 1943, $475. January, 1945, $17,356. The total for the entire year of 1943 was only $28,756 for all kinds of building and for 1944, $73,640. So this month alone tops the entire total of many entire years.

Who says Sierra Madre isn't growing? Nelson Morrison, erect dwelling, 501 E. Montecito, $5700. Gordon Brooks, erect dwelling, 77 S. Lima, $4500. H. E. Warner, erect dwelling, 500 N. ## Honor Comes Again at PJC to Tess Keys

At a Pasadena Junior College special assembly last week Tess Keys was tapped for OMD (Order of Mast and Dagger), an honorary society for outstanding service. Miss Keys, one of 19 thus honored, is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret A. Keys of W. Highland and a senior majoring in art. A few weeks ago Miss Keys derived much praise for submitting the design of the College float which appeared in the Rose Parade New Year's Day. She is president of Zeta Gamma Phi and will graduate in June.

KIWANIS HEARS PLANS FOR YEARLY PROGRAM

The Kiwanis luncheon meeting Tuesday was a meeting of great interest to club members. The program with vice-president, Bob Green presiding, was a report from all committees on their plans, aims and objectives for the coming year.

Kiwanian Dale Blankenship of Dexter, Mo., was a guest of Harry Lange, Mr. Blankenship is a guest at the H. Clay Reavis home.

Y. M. C. A. Sponsoring Basketball

Y.M.C.A. is sponsoring six basketball teams in Sierra Madre in the 6th, 7th and 8th grades which meet after school every Thursday at 3:30 for practice.

Gordon Crowell, assistant secretary of the Santa Anita District is coaching and says he can use another team or so in the tournament which is being prepared for. Seven is a team and any group of seven boys may make application to join the basketball tournament.

STAY AWAY FROM MY DOOR... Things have really come to the point where Los Angeles citizens would appreciate pleasure-travelers staying away from their doors for at least another six months. Do you believe in signs?

VETERANS' CORNER

A number of changes in the Servicemen's Readjustment Act became effective December 28, 1945. These changes are principally in connection with education and loans and it might be well for ex-servicemen who have heretofore investigated their rights in these respects and found them unattractive or difficult to obtain, to again make inquiry concerning them.

With respect to education, the benefits are available to some extent to all, regardless of age, provided their service was active and after September 16, 1940. Substantial allowances have been increased and non-graduate students or training courses have been provided for.

With regard to loans, the Government will guarantee 50 per cent of real estate loans up to $4000, and 50 per cent up to $2000 on non-real estate loans. Naturally, reasonable controls are retained but it would appear that the security requirements are not as rigid as they were.

School Superintendent Henry Korsemeier can advise the ex-serviceman as to the changes made with respect to education, and R. C. Lewis of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank has information regarding loans. Consult them.

FIRE FLAMES

Vast Amount of Damage by
Windstorm Taxes Department

Because there is an excess amount of trash from the recent wind, our streets are cluttered with unsightly leaves and such. The street department is overtaxed with the many tasks they are called upon to perform. There are not enough men in this department to accomplish as much as they are expected by the residents to do. Besides not being enough men, the equipment is inefficient because of age, and not enough of it. It is a case of either get more help and equipment or haul it away yourself or else burn it up. The fire department has no objection to burning trimmings and leaves if the burning is done at the proper time and place. The firemen will never agree that to permit promiscuous burning is wise and profitable. Our records of the past have proven decidedly that the control of outdoor burning prevents unwanted fires. Under the existing conditions of our fire protection, there is no better way to make our town a safe place to live in than to PREVENT fires. One of the best ways to PREVENT is to know just when, where and how people are going to do their outdoor burning. If residents have any idea of burning the accumulation, it is earnestly urged that they call upon the fire department for an O.K. which would be a written permit. Much of the stuff will have to be burned, no doubt. DON'T forget a permit and the sanction of the firemen. It's better to prevent than put out a fire. It really is a pity that a city with the natural wealth and beauty that Sierra Madre possesses does not have an efficient collection of trimmings so that burning among costly residences could be entirely eliminated. It's up to us as taxpayers. Do we want it?

The firemen carried on their bi-monthly drill last week by driving the trucks to nearby fire drills to feign fires. Assistant Chief Vern Udell with a crew of men spent much time with the new pumper. First Assistant Chief Norris took his gang to another section and got acquainted with the intricacies of the State Pool Equipment which includes many valuable fire-fighting necessities. In order that all men know something about everything, the drills are not sufficient and there are some who think more drills should be held. With our present arrangements, each man may be called upon to either drive the trucks, operate the pumps, connect to the plug or handle the nozzles. It is not uncommon to see old timers at the nozzles during drill, even to the Chiefs. Men are picked because of their interest in fire-fighting and for knowing that much depends on them as to the safety of the town against fire. Too much would be asked of the men to compare them with the work of professional firemen who spend hours each day in studying fire-fighting equipment and the causes of fires. This might also be added to the upkeep of the station's neatness.

The return of Joe "Major" Burns to the fold Friday evening brought much pleasure to the crowd, despite the fact that it forced Mercer Duff to retire to the Auxiliary list. From all indications, "Duffy" will soon return to the Active roll. All men who left the fire department for the armed services are entitled to their standing in the organization and this applied to Burns. Always having been one of the most popular members before the war, Joe was welcomed with open arms. When Mercer Duff was forced to relinquish his place to Joe, the gathering gave him an assurance that he would soon return at the very first opening. The meeting held following the drill was no exception. The same fellows provoked fines upon themselves by talking out of turn and because of the constant violations afore—there is little need to mention that this notorious group includes Steinberger, Hawks, Norris, Thomas, Liscombe, Udell and a few others, too polygamous to mention (whatever that means).

In another week or so, there will be sufficient funds in the "Chiss Can" to provide a chicken dinner up at "Boys" and Thelma Orme's "Lizzie's Trail Inn." This always affords the firemen a night out to be remembered. Yes, it does. It is one time when these noted annihilators of nourishment can take on all that the lower compartment will contain. Other sports are also very inviting, which makes the evening one of the firemen's unforgettable social functions. Always remember to keep the FIRES OUT is best.

Troop Five of the Sierra Madre Girl Scouts gave a tea for their mothers Friday at the home of Mrs. Best Connaghan Ave. with Mrs. Raymond Andrews and Mrs. Walter Nollac honor guests. The girls planned the party, prepared the refreshments and were the hostesses fulfilling the final requirements for earning their hostess badges.

Mrs. Andrews, the Commissioner, presented badges to the following girls: Patricia Randolph, Geraldine Marshall, Patricia Halmerin, Laura Schreier, Molly O'Donnell, Barbara Fergus, Carol Crowell, Constance Best, Dixie Martin, Arden Wallace, Joanne Sparks, Ardis Shipway and Julie Counselman.

ALA ACTIVITIES

Splendid reports from the Pomona district meeting were given by the president and secretary of the Unit meeting held at the home of Leila Embree Thursday night, January being education month. Minnie Stiman, education chairman, gave a synopsis of those who are eligible for a Department Educational loan. Poppy chairman reported that 67,300 poppies have been ordered in the 18th District for which they were awarded a $10 prize. The membership chairman presented the application of Gloria Swanson Noel and she was welcomed as a new member of our unit. The district initiation of new members will take place at South Pasadena the night of February 18. Augusta Coates gave a resume of Mrs. Lauretta Wilkinson's recent talk before the Red Cross, saying she especially stressed that we should not relax on our hospital work. Mrs. Embree spoke of the Memorial Rose plot in San Francisco, where anyone may order a rose bush planted in memory of a departed hero. An interesting feature of this meeting was the exhibit of German guns and assorted medals which Mrs. Oscar Willumsen brought to the meeting, among which was a German rifle from the S.S. barracks of Hitler's hideout in Berchtesgaden, near Munich. The next meeting will be February 14 as there are five Thursdays in January.

POTATOES ARE PLENTIFUL

Potatoes, one of our most economical and versatile vegetables, are plentiful and may be used in main dishes to help bring the Christmas food budget back into line.

The mild flavor lends itself to innumerable home or special party dishes. Potatoes baked, fried, steamed, or mashed, are always found on the favorite menu of the man of the house.

When prepared with the well-scrubbed skins left intact, this vegetable is a good source of vitamins and minerals; so let's serve them whole and serve them often.

OVEN FRENCH FRIES
6 medium potatoes
Salt
6 tbsp. melted fat or vegetable oil

Prepare potatoes as for French-frying (¾ by ¼" strips). Dry thoroughly. Spread in shallow pan. Sprinkle with melted fat. Bake at 375° 50 minutes or until golden brown and tender. Turn once during baking. Sprinkle with salt. The potatoes have more food value and are very tasty if the well-scrubbed peels are left on. May be baked at 425°; decrease time to 35 minutes.

BAKED POTATOES WITH ONIONS
4 medium potatoes
1 onion, minced
Fat
Seasonings

Scrub and dry potatoes. Rub with fat. Bake at 450° F. for 45 minutes, or until done. Split and fill with finely chopped onions, butter, and seasonings. Return to oven for 15-20 minutes. Serve immediately.

HAMBURGER BAKE
1 medium onion, chopped
2 tbsp. fat
1 lb. ground beef
½ tsp. salt
½ tsp. pepper
½ lb. cooked green beans or 1 #2 can, drained
11 oz. can tomato soup
5 medium potatoes, cooked
1 c. warm milk
1 egg
½ tsp. salt
½ tsp. pepper

Brown onion in hot fat; add meat and seasonings. Add beans and soup; pour into greased 8x12x2-inch baking dish. Mash potatoes; add combined milk, egg, and seasonings. Spread in strips over meat mixture. Bake at 350° F. 30 minutes. Substitute green lima beans for the string beans.

continue to check up on the carelessness of the merchants. Many doors are found open. Four in one night. While guests visited Percy Bennett for a few minutes some culprit rifled the car and removed some valuables. A navel orange tree trimmed of its fruit right in broad daylight. No one saw it done. Of course some children were seen around. A local patron of hoosegows who had imbibed too much of the stuff that fills one with ideas, phoned from Pasadena to have his wife come there with $25. The only reason for this would be—what? An injured girl in the mountains causes much anxiety and sorrow. A man in a garage is making too much noise for the comfort of his neighbors, some of whom do not feel so good. To think of it—another man down in Sierra Madre, see, what's the matter? Police are called to meeting to consider and learn about a proposed pension plan. The drunk was arrested and spoke to Judge Eaton in the morning. A boy bitten under the arm by a dog. A dog that barks all day and half the night. Well, he's gotta sleep sometime. A stray dog "soon to be a mother" is reported in the Orange Grove Ave. district. Complaints of two others come in about the same "day-and-night-barking dog." Arcadia resident doesn't like the smoke from our dump. It comes from evergreen trees—it should be good. Complainant said she has been objecting for the past three years. Officer Bill Chunn had to push the police car in—battery went dead. He's big enough, he shouldn't whine about that. Officer Art Udell finds a lot of street lights that do not glimmer. Lost dog found. Man loses his wallet. Money in it, too. Prowler reported. Car heard driving away. A cat with a broken back dragged itself under the house. Chunn detailed. He reported back the cat was too far under to "get at." The Edison Co. called to ask what had become of a lady who had phoned them and then made a noise as though she had fallen. Bill Chunn took care of this too. Went to see the lady and found her trouble was a blown-out fuse and she had not fallen as supposed. One of our yowls thought it funny to drive upon the sidewalk in the wee hours of the a.m. He little realized that anyone would see him. A lady found a cat that had passed on. Officer Heasley wanted to know when it had passed. He thought it must have been a "long, long time." Petty theft reported. More doors and windows found left unlocked and open. Hardly had the highway at the corner of S. M. Blvd. and Sunnyside been repaired from the effects of the windstorm, when an auto driver fell asleep on his way home from somewhere and rammed into it only to damage it more than it was before. Boys caught swimming in a private reservoir. The caretaker turned them over to the police. The boys admitted the water was "pretty chilly." Finis.

POLICE BLOTTER

Mrs. Pauline Wolpert, 255 Grove St., reported to the police that there had been a beautiful dog around her home and that it had been there for several days. Officer Heasley followed up. The dog would not come to the officer. Instead it ran to the home of Joe Hinojos next door. Joe heard the commotion, so he came out and with him came his own little black puppy. On learning that the strange dog was wanted, Joe had little difficulty in getting it to approach him, because, he said, "it has become very friendly with our dog." The strange dog bore a Pasadena license tag and it was taken to the local pound, just south of East Grand View Ave. The owner was traced and the beautiful strange pointer was soon retrieved. This all happened before noon. Early that afternoon a report came into the station that a small black dog had been run over by a car and someone had thrown the body over the stone wall that separates the city grounds from the street. On the collar of the dog was a license tag registered to Joe Hinojos. When Joe was questioned in regard to the dog, tears filled his eyes. He had missed it and could only explain that it must have been down that way in search of the other dog. Night men

We work not to acquire but to become.

SOMEHOW IT SEEMS TO ME that we are not so much interested in what we are or can be as we are in what we can have and can get. Guess I am a bit cynical, BUT

FROM WHAT I CAN HEAR with my two little ears and see with my big eyes, I gather that some of you have enough food on your shelves to feed your families for a month.

YES, I KNOW THAT WE are all looking out for ourselves. That is a primitive trait. However, it occurs to me that some of us get too much and others too little, and because of this I am sorry that Uncle Opy removed rationing.

IF YOU NOW TAKE a package of something you don't need just because you MIGHT need it later, then YOU may be depriving a needy family of something it needs.

THE OLD TESTAMENT EXHORTS us to consider the hoarding instincts of the ant, "and be wise." Our present economic system demands that you depend upon modern methods of distribution and buy so that you may live from day to day—and so that all may have a share!

WHETHER OR NOT YOU AGREE with this system, I believe that if we do not learn to share with each other, then GREED will incubate not only another World War, but also another Civil War that will make our last wars look like friendly games of croquet.

IF YOU HAVE READ this far, perhaps I can talk about fruits and vegetables, groceries and so forth. California growers need help on oranges. Do you get your full quota of vitamins C? It is a requisite for good teeth, curly hair and "oomph." Oranges have it! Smaller, more juicy than larger ones, size 1, and specially priced this week in my "stall." The lettuce is exceptionally good now—large, solid, crispy heads—and much cheaper in price. It is one of the oldest known vegetables, having been enjoyed by Darius the Great, 500 B.C., and Galen, Greek physician prescribed it for insomnia. Also a favorite food of Catherine the Great. Well, Well!

BY THE WAY, DO YOU KNOW? my assistant, Ray Shaw? He's the quiet guy who does most of the work in the parsnip department. He has worked with and for POP off and on since 1934. When he was discharged from the Army last June he came back to us. And am I glad!

CURLY WAS LAID LOW with the "flu" for two weeks. Being once more on the job, he has to speak HIS piece: "Tell them about the genuine Vermont Maple Syrup we have just received direct from the Vermont maple sugar country 'down East,' and oh, yes," sez he, "we're going to offer a real special on fancy caramels this week end." Es todo.

THE BUTTER AND OLEO situation being what it is, BETTY reminds me that more people are turning to cheeses of all kinds when they can get them, and particularly Cream Cheese in bulk, both plain and pimento, which she has in ample quantity in her department.

This is what's behind those CHEVRON SIGNS

Lots of folks are curious about the new Chevron Gas Stations. So here are the answers to the questions you've been asking—the story of how Standard of California is helping us establish our identity as independent merchants.

No, when the Chevron sign goes up over a gas station it doesn't mean that the station has changed hands. The new name, the new paint job are just to establish it as an independent business.

Lots of motorists who like the personal service they get at independent gas stations don't always know they are "home-owned." We're taking this means of making the fact plain to folks around here.

You bet we will continue to handle Standard products. We want to offer our customers the finest. Our service and accessories will be just the same, too.

Sure, Chevron Gas Stations honor Standard of California's National Credit Cards. And they're mighty handy when you come in for Chevron Gasolines, RPM Motor Oil and other products and services. Just drop in any time.

Reed escaped serious injury but suffered a cut on his leg which required several stitches to close.

Mr. Davidson commenced to think his wall was a hoodoo as he had just finished repairing break caused by a falling limb in the recent windstorm.

Will Celebrate Candlemas Day and Feast of St. Blas

The Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be celebrated in St. Rita's church Saturday morning, February 2, at 8:15, according to the pastor, Fr. Leo Scheibel, C.P. This feast is also known as Candlemas Day inasmuch as the candles used during the year are blessed on this day. The blessing of the candles will take place before the Mass at 8:15.

Sunday, February 3, is the Feast of St. Blas, Bishop and martyr. It will be celebrated in St. Rita's with the blessing of throats after the Masses on Sunday morning and at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. This blessing is observed every year on the Feast of this Saint who is noted for the cure of throat ailments and the preservation of health of those blessed with candles under his invocation. In consequence of his having saved the life of a child who was dying, choked by a bone which had stuck in his throat, the church recognizes his prerogative for healing all diseases of the throat. The church blesses two candles to this effect and asks God for all those whose necks the candles shall touch, that they may be delivered from throat disease or from any other ill through the merits of this holy martyr's death.

Hundreds of Calif. Schools Accredited for G.I. Education

Governor Earl Warren was notified by the Department of Education today that 954 California institutions of learning have been accredited under the Federal "GI Bill of Rights."

A "veterans' advisor" has been designated at every public secondary school in the State, Roy E. Simpson, superintendent of public instruction, told the Governor.

This program, Simpson declared, "has become a vital part of the State's service to the returning war veteran."

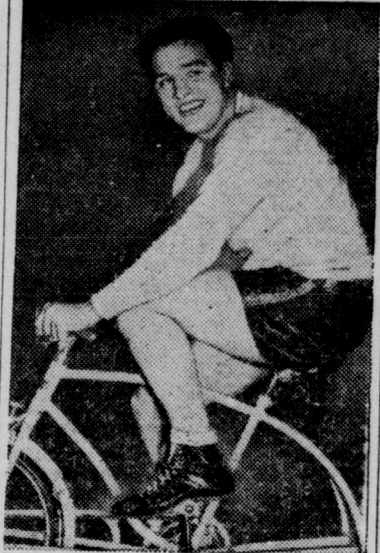

The junior colleges also "are making every effort to aid the veteran in his problem of educational readjustment," Simpson said. They are helping the veteran to make up high school deficiencies, and are offering pre-professional courses preparatory to college entrance.

The liberalized provisions of the GI Bill also authorize training of veterans by correspondence schools, Simpson said. However, the instruction offered must be approved by the State before the Veterans' Administration will contract for the tuition of veterans.

OPA Announces New Hours in Southland

New hours for OPA price control boards throughout Southern California were announced today by O. K. Collins, district price control board executive of the government agency.

Effective February 1, all boards will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. The new schedule, Collins said, will give increased service to Southland citizens and will enable the agency to do a better job. Boards will not be open on Saturdays.

The function of the boards is now limited to price control matters and all persons are urged to report overcharge to their boards immediately so that investigations and proper action may be taken.

S.O.S. TO SPORTSMEN

Believe it or not, the No. 1 enemy of the California farmer isn't the OPA, the weather or the tax collector. It's the coyote—along with the mountain lion, bear and bobcat. Those mountain mobsters last year cost ranchers a cold three million in livestock. Foot-hill orchardists lost heavily, too. Mountain lions killed nearly a million dollars worth of deer, say Fish and Game Division estimates. Now that professional hunters are out of the war plants and sportsmen have more leisure as well as ammunition, the situation is expected to improve. California has 108 professionals, and needs more.

VETERANS' SURPLUS OFFICE TO OPEN HERE

The job of helping veterans obtain priorities on Government surplus materials will come under new management next Monday, January 28, when the War Assets Corporation takes it over from the Smaller War Plants Corporation, under Presidential directive.

A "special service section" to aid veterans and others eligible for priorities will open Monday morning on the 13th floor of the Transportation Building at 122 E. 7th St. in downtown Los Angeles.

Here's where to get information on War Assets Corporation surplus:

Plans Being Made to Encourage Tourists

Pointing out that in normal times seven out of 10 employed people here have jobs in the trades and services which are greatly benefited by tourist spending, Morris E. Pendleton, Regional chairman of the Committee for Economic Development, today urged revival of the Southland's $200,000,000 travel industry.

Pendleton said the program of the All-Year club, community travel advertising organization, is essential for the fullest postwar employment in the Southland. The All-Year club, which built up the travel business here in 24 years of campaigning, has begun the revival of the vacation industry as of next summer and fall, when hotels no longer have the load of returning servicemen. Meantime, the club is advising people throughout the nation to defer visits because there is no place for them to stay.

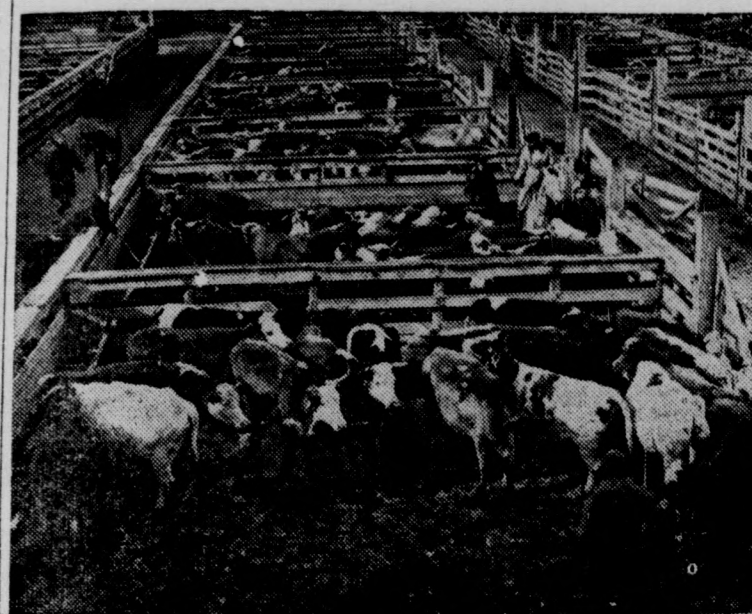

Pendleton urged the quickest possible reconversion to the Southland's normal, permanent economy, and intensification of all efforts toward fullest possible employment in all fields. Together with industry and agriculture, one of the most important fields of employment is in the trades and services, he said.

"In this field are our salesmen, bakers, motormen, the mechanic who fixes your car," he explained. "The whole field of distribution and services will be the key to a prosperous Southern California. In prewar years, seven out of 10 of our employed people were working in this field. This is 25 per cent above the national average, and economists tell us that is why Southern California has a better than average standard of living."

"This trades and services economy has been created in part by the quick flow of tourist spendings into the sales and distribution fields. So the sooner we have our tourist business back, the sooner will be restored our soundly balanced economy with the fullest possible employment."

TEST COOLING SYSTEM

"Whether the cooling system of your car is in need of an internal bath is easily determined," says L. G. Evans, General Service manager of the National Automobile club. "If the water shows discoloration when the drain plug is opened, it means the system is not functioning as effectively as it may be. The water radiates heat more quickly when it carries no scale impurities. Incidentally, the scale forms an insulation around the cylinders which tends to hold the heat in them."

SAVED BY MEAT PACKERS STRIKE . . . Meat on the hoof, and it will stay that way if the strike of two meat industry unions continues. Scene is the Chicago stock yards, where activity was virtually nil when the packing house workers and amalgamated meat cutters walked out.

INCOME TAX OF SERVICEMEN

Under the present revenue laws, all active service pay of men below the rank of commissioned officers has been declared exempt back to January 1, 1941, according to Harry C. Westover, Collector of Internal Revenue. The first $1500 of military wages received by commissioned officers exempt back to January 1, 1941, is likewise exempt.

"In addition to these retroactive exclusions, the new revenue act permits both commissioned officers and enlisted men, under certain conditions, to defer actual payment of taxes confronting them at the time of their discharge."

"Commissioned officers released from service prior to December 1, 1945, may defer payment of taxes on their military wages if they file a proper application before May 15, 1946. Those released after last December 1 have until June 15, 1947, to file applications. Such deferred taxes may be paid without interest in 12 equal quarterly installments stretched over a three-year period," Westover declared.

"All servicemen, commissioned or non-commissioned, may upon application obtain similar deferment of taxes attributable to pre-service civilian income earned during 1940 or 1941, provided such taxes fall due after induction. Taxes on pre-service earned income thus deferred may also be paid in 12 equal quarterly installments without interest."

"If any member of the armed forces of the United States or of the armed forces of any of the United Nations dies between December 7, 1941, and the end of the war as officially proclaimed by the President, his tax liability for the year of his death is cancelled. If already collected for that year it will be refunded. Any tax for years prior to that of his death which remains unpaid will be forgiven. If any part or all of any tax due for years prior to his death is collected after his death, the amount so collected will be refunded upon the filing of a claim."

"Personnel serving or imprisoned at any time in a possession of the United States are not required under certain circumstances to pay taxes on wages earned during such time. For the purpose of this exemption, the term 'possession of the United States' includes the Philippine Islands, Guam, American Samoa, Wake, Midway, Johnston Island, Baker, Howland Island, Jarvis Island, Kingman Reef, Sand Island, Panama Canal Zone, Pribiloff Island, Puerto Rico, Navassa, Serranilla Bank, Maiana, Swains, Swan Islands, Tutuila, Peale, and Wilkes. Captured Japanese territorial possessions are not considered possessions of the United States in connection with this exemption."

"All servicemen who were in any of these possessions and have since returned to the United States should check with the revenue office to determine whether they are eligible for this exemption.

"All members of the armed forces inside the continental limits of the United States are required to file declarations of estimated tax on a similar basis to other citizens and residents provided their gross income is in excess of the special allowances and personal exemptions given them under the law," Westover warned.

"Minors are emancipated while in active service and are subject to the income tax laws on the same basis as other servicemen. Parents of minors in the armed forces are not required to make an accounting of their children's income."

UNO AND THE ATOMIC AGE

In its first formal session in London the United Nations Assembly is undertaking the task of solving some of the world problems which the old League of Nations failed to cope with adequately—a failure that led to the disintegration of the League and the build-up of World War II.

It is an interesting coincidence that the very day the UNO Assembly met for the first time happened to be the same date on which the Versailles Peace Treaty and League of Nations covenant went into effect 26 years ago.

The new world organization is much better equipped, technically speaking, than was the League, to combat aggressive political and economic ideologies, still undestroyed, which led the nations into war.

But it should be emphasized that the difference between the new and the old international body is largely technical. The League of Nations even with all its faults of organization could have been successful if its member countries had been determined to make it succeed. The UNO was designed to eliminate at least some of the weaknesses of its predecessor and it is a much stronger organization—on paper. But it will be no more successful than the sincerity and co-operation of its member nations make it.

There is, however, a vast difference in world conditions which faced the diplomats of 26 years ago and those of today. That difference can best be summed up in two words—atomic bomb.

And that difference makes it imperative that the Nations of the world work together as never before to establish a real peace and to keep it.

This will be done if the UNO delegates and their governments realize and fulfill the solemn responsibility which the atomic age has thrust upon them.

UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING

There are almost as many opinions on universal military training as there are members of Congress. After the "yes" and "no" citizen groups are put to one side there is still a vast number of people, possibly a majority, who would accept the idea with certain qualifications, limitations, etc. It is not likely to pass at this session but the problem will keep coming back until it is settled.

It would be foolish to assume that there is now no need of large military forces. And we cannot today say that universal training will not prove, on balance, the best method of obtaining them. But it is no less foolish to assume that the business of war is going to be carried on in the same old way. Defense that shortens by cutting its time for readiness isn't good enough. And military leaders must not act as if they had or were soon likely to find a military defense against atom bombing.

The case for universal training is not proved. But Mr. Truman has reminded us that it must still be regarded as one of the several factors in America's security equation. We should say that a factor deserving more urgent attention is the development of effective international controls—a defense against the common enemy war.

Harry Lyons is going to Florida by steamer. He expects to develop a sub-division of 15 acres with S. R. G. Twycross on Carter.

WILL IT COME TO THIS?

AROUND AND ABOUT

By EDWARD LLOYD VOORHEES

THE EMERALD ISLE—LEISURELY ROAD TOWARD DUBLIN. Big Tom Burke, who was still a robust and agile man at 45 or 50, told me that when he was a young fellow his mind was made up to go "feran." But there was a girl he had been keeping company with and when he mentioned to her his plan to "see the world and travel up and down to it," she spoke up and said, "I thought ye was fond of me." That won him. So he sent word by his best friend to the father of the girl with the message that he would marry his daughter—if he would have it that way, and if not, he would anyway. Then he sent word to the girl that he was coming to see her on the next Sunday. She knew why, and was all ready for the word—and they have been together ever since, nor had he ever been sorry, "Nor sor!"

When we shook hands and said goodnight in front of my hotel, I pressed a half-crown into his palm, "for feeding the smoke." He beamed like a boy with a new bicycle and gave me "God's blessing." He hoped that maybe I would see his two sons in "America," and I would write a line, so would he. Though I never did find his sons, Tom Burke and I exchanged holiday messages for some years, and I still have an emerald-green silk handkerchief which arrived one Easter tide, finely hemstitched and with an intricate design including a horseshoe, forget-me-nots, and the words "A present from Ireland" embroidered in five colors in one corner, evidently by Tom's wife, who about a year later, in answer to my New Year's greeting to Tom, wrote me of his death.

I was fortunate to be in Galway the day of "the races"—the annual regatta—which brought the rowing crews from a dozen colleges all over Ireland. Afoot and in barges and tugs the crowd streamed out of Galway and up the river toward Lough (Lake) Corrib. I believe it was, and I with them. It was a gay, noisy crowd, and along the race course the betting was fast and lively. The odds posted up on markers stuck into the ground along the river's bank. Everybody was very excited and talkative. It was my first opportunity to observe a large Irish crowd in holiday mood out of doors. If one understands that the blond Danes conquered and occupied various parts of Ireland in the early Christian centuries, and that in the 16th century, both before, during, and after the attempted invasion of England by the Spanish Armada in 1588, the dark Spaniards, either as shipwrecked mariners, pirates or as traders, poured into western Ireland, it may help to account for what I noted at the Galway boat races: the crowd seemed sharply divided between "red" Irishmen and "black" the latter slightly predominating in number. It was a fine, good-natured crowd, containing, I was told, large numbers of ex-soldiers, and drivers—most of whom were out of work, but forgetting to worry for the moment. That was a "big night" in Galway, everybody celebrating something!

I saw, as a further touch of what I fancied to be the Spanish influence in Galway, handsome young girls wearing the shawl—black, brown, or gray here in the West—tightly wrapped about them in the Spanish fashion—a very fetching effect! Any of them could have played "Carmen"—at least in a tableau. In fact, the collens of Galway, like the older and younger people of that sociable town, conveyed the impression of being as good-naturedly amiable as they were alert and witty, of a natural and attractive behavior. And I noted that at the hotel the Irish maid, while jolly, laughing and joking among themselves, were most attentive to their work—watching the water pitcher and the drinking jug to keep them full and "turning down the bed" at the time natural for slumber—though when I returned at 11:45 one night full darkness had barely arrived in that high latitude in mid-summer. But the hotel was by then as quiet as the Palace of the Sleeping Beauty in the fairy tale, just before the Prince arrives.

Since my limited time that summer did not permit extending my travels into North Ireland, I now turned my face toward the East and Dublin, to complete the second leg of that equilateral triangle which I had begun at Cobn. But of course I did not go to Dublin directly—for where is the sense of traveling thousands of miles to see a country and its people, and then merely "hitting the high spots"? So, a third of the way to Dublin I stopped off for a look at Athlone and the points of interest, thereabouts, of which Providence and historical destiny have provided not a few. I shall not forget Station Master Fegan, a light-complexioned, who with his lively good nature was very kind to this solitary American tourist who stopped off in his town that morning. In fact, he treated me as a brother should do and did me the honor to say he could swear that I must be Irish myself until I showed him my Hollander name. Then he did me the valuable service of inspiring me with the wish to see the early Christian settlement of Clonmacnoise with its "Seven Churches," and the practical favor of suggesting me a good boatman to take me there, some 13 miles down the silvery Shannon. And a lovely trip it proved to be.

RETIRED FROM SERVICE OF SANTA FE RAILROAD

After more than a half-century of railroad service, L. H. Collett, safety supervisor, Los Angeles Division of Santa Fe Railway's Coast Lines, with headquarters at San Bernardino, has announced his retirement, to become effective January 31st.

C. H. COLLETT

Succeeding him is S. S. Allison, now trainmaster at San Bernardino, according to an announcement made today by E. L. Duggan, safety superintendent for the rail system.

A veteran railroader, Allison entered Santa Fe ranks as an office boy at Topeka, Kansas in 1908. Becoming a dispatcher at San Marcial, New Mexico in 1916, he has since that time served in that capacity and as chief dispatcher and trainmaster at various points throughout the system. He came to San Bernardino in the latter capacity in November, 1943.

Now is the time for all good times to come together.

CHURCHILL VISITING IN THE UNITED STATES... Accompanied by Mrs. Churchill, 1st, the former prime minister of Great Britain, Winston Churchill, center, is shown with his Miami, Fla., host, Col. Frank Clark. The former war prime minister expects to spend several weeks in the South, resting, painting, fishing, with some writing thrown in. It has been reported that Churchill will retire from active politics.

BLANCHARD, FORD WIN SULLIVAN AWARD. For the first time in the 16-year history of the Sullivan award, a college football player, Felix ("Doc") Blanchard, Army star fullback, was voted the memorial trophy by the A.A.U. For the second straight year, Alan Ford, Yale's sprint swimming ace, was runner-up in the balloting. The winner last year was swimming star Ann Curtis, California young star. Blanchard is a native of Bishopville, S.C.

The Colorado State Society picnic is scheduled for Sunday, February 10, with an all-day reunion.

GREEK women in patched rags wait in line as clothing collected in America's nation-wide spring drive is distributed in their land. Seven million other bombed-out Greeks with no clothing, shoes or bedding face the bitter winter living in frail lean-tos. Give all your spare clothing to the Victory Clothing Collection for overseas relief, January 7-31.

HEAR UAW CHARGES... Gerald D. Reilly of the National Labor Relations board, who was appointed to hear charge that General Motors had failed to bargain in good faith. The charges were made by UAW officials.

Your longing

YOU WANT A MODERN "WORKSHOP"... where everything's arranged for an easy flow of work. And here you are—another "New Freedom Gas Kitchen" designed around the 3 essentials:

1. Automatic Gas Water Heating, to assure a supply that "never-runs-dry" (Remember, you'll need still more hot water for your new automatic dishwasher and washing machine!)
2. The tops in cooking perfection—a "CP" Gas Range with the best features of dozens of ranges all built into one! 3. Servel Gas Refrigeration with a 10-year guarantee. No moving parts to wear. Stays trouble-free!

A kitchen that takes the "irk" out of work! Just note the pleasant laundry or utility room right off the kitchen...no more "blue Mondays" for you! You'll note on this dual work-center streamlined around your modern gas appliances. No dingy corners. No dust-catching cracks. If you're building or remodeling—your Gas Kitchen will be flame-perfect!

Ask the Professor

By H. F. Noake

Dear Prof.:

I'm a sailor. Am about to marry a California girl. She wants to settle down in the country. What in the world could I do to make a living?

Ans.: Raise navel oranges.

Dear Professor:

We used to hear a lot about the Bulls and the Bears. What's become of them?

Answer: They've yielded to the Wolves.

Dear Professor:

Have invented a new type electric chair. Would you like to see a photograph of it?

Answer: Send it along; always welcome things of current interest.

Postwar Pants for a Postwar Citizen

For The Well-Dressed Infant

YOUR baby was born at just the right time to benefit by all the wonderful new products which are beginning to appear on the market. His health, happiness and standard of living will be advanced by the research and ingenuity which have been concentrated on war-making. Developments in electronics, progress in atomic physics and increased use of magical new materials will be part of his heritage.

A shining example is the pretty and practical pair of moisture-proof pants shown above. They're made of the same "Vinylite" plastics film that was used for waterproof rifle covers and protective ponchos for our fighting forces in the jungles and swamps of the tropics. In spite of its durability, "Vinylite" plastics film is soft, pliant, and pleasant to the touch.

Of special interest to mothers is the fact that it won't absorb dirt or odors for, of course, a happy, healthy baby must be kept sweet and clean. For comfort, the pants are generously cut, well-ventilated and have waist- and leg-bands that won't chafe his tender skin.

Perhaps plastic baby pants will be the young "postwar citizen's" first contact with the newest wonders of science. And though he will be much more impressed, someday, with practical television and flying automobiles, and yet to be released wonders of plastics research, it is his mother's concern that he have the best during the important early years.

SANTA ANITA PARK

 "In the summer more boats and pleasure craft are going to be provided for the lake. There will be regattas, swimming meets and a number of water sports. A new amusement zone will be developed. There will be added facilities for bowling and other recreations. A distinctive open-air theatre is contemplated. The best in sports and recreations will be provided at Lake Arrowhead."

CONTENTED GUEST—Beautiful, blond, blue-eyed, and talented Marie Green whose voice ranges from a sultry contralto to coloratura will be guest vocalist on ABC's "Contented" program

HIGH TIDE

All signs point to a tourist tidal wave in the next 12 months—an East-West flood, sweeping a ponderous tide of visitors onto the Coast and leaving behind in every community the rich, thick silt of vacation dollars.

Regularly classed as a 250-million-dollar-a-year business, and employing nearly a quarter-million people, the tourist industry is expected to head for unpredictable new levels. Incentives: 1. Sudden release of the travel urge, long pentstocked by war. 2. Newly available travel facilities (late Spring will see most Pacific troops ashore and headed home). 3. Family bankrolls, long earmarked for vacationing.

PATCH LIFE IS LIMITED

Blow-out patches, like tires, have been improved. They will give considerably more mileage than their predecessors. The fact remains that no matter how tough the patch may be, it cannot be expected to perform like the carcass of the tire.

Its nature is inevitably temporary and emergency. The tire that is so repaired may be carried as a spare but its service should be restricted to this capacity entirely—used only while the other tire is being repaired.

CONDITION YOUR CAR

"You can't do much about the weather—but you can about your driving," says Bert Stewart of the Safety Department of the National Automobile Club.

Mr. Stewart urges motorists to protect their lives and lives of others by conditioning cars for safe winter driving. "Keep your tires, tire chains, brakes, windshield wipers and heater in good repair. Lower your speed to match winter weather and road conditions. Ease up when there's a freeze-up."

MARGIN OF SAFETY

Recent reports indicate that many individuals with small savings are playing the stock market in the hope of getting rich quick.

The stock market is a normal and necessary part of the American business structure but it is no place for persons of small means to try for a quick "killing." Usually, small "investors" stand a greater chance of losing than of gaining since they are too often inclined to put their funds into highly speculative stocks or to act on rumors and "tips."

The prime need of those who have accumulated a little "nest egg" is safety and there is no substitute for the safety of Government savings bonds or bank savings accounts. Here in California these savings facilities are virtually brought to our door by Statewide branch banking which reaches not only scores of the smallest communities but many outlying districts of the larger cities as well.

It should not be forgotten that the "easy" way of making money also is the easy way of losing it. Common sense tells us that persons of small means should be conservative. And we hope common sense prevails.

JOIN THE MARCH OF DIMES FIGHT INFANTILE PARALYSIS JANUARY 14-31

Motorists who are driving into snow areas should carry tire chains, advises the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club. While chains may not be necessary upon entering snow areas, sudden weather changes may require their use.

KEEP FRESH ON MOTOR RULES

ANSWERS

1. No. The Basic Speed Law provides: "No person shall drive a vehicle upon a highway at a speed greater than is reasonable or prudent having due regard for the traffic on, and the surface and width of, the highway, and in no event at a speed which endangers the safety of persons or property." (Section 510 Vehicle Code.)

2. Yes. Unless otherwise directed by a police or traffic officer. (Section 475 Vehicle Code.)

3. Yes. In accordance with mandatory provisions of law a person convicted a first time of driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor, a misdemeanor, gets his driver's license suspended 30 days. Following a second such conviction his license is suspended 90 days and thereafter he must file an $11,000 bond, or its equivalent, to regain his right to drive. If such violation involves injury, it becomes a felony and such person's driver's license is revoked for one year and until he posts the required bond. (Section 304-307 Vehicle Code.)

4. Yes. Since the law provides that "A vehicle shall be driven as nearly as practical entirely within a single lane and shall not be moved from such lane until the driver has first ascertained that such movement can be made with safety." (Section 526(a) Vehicle Code.)

5. Yes. The law provides that "the driver of a vehicle approaching an intersection shall yield the right of way to a vehicle which has entered the intersection from a different highway." (Section 551 Vehicle Code.)

6. Yes. (Section 551 Vehicle Code.)
